

Are you:

- thinking of starting a Friends group?
- reorganizing or revitalizing the one you have?
- looking for some fresh ideas?

How do libraries benefit from Friends groups?

Friends groups extend a library's capacity through:

- monetary gifts
- volunteer support
- program support
- advocacy

Friends of Kansas Libraries (FoKL) is committed to helping libraries meet the needs and expectations of their communities. It offers start-up grants to help establish new Friends groups and support for special projects through challenge grants. If you are interested in making a contribution to this state organization, please join FoKL and become a supporter of Kansas libraries.

Friends groups make sure their library is strong, relevant and well-funded!

Libraries need Friends

it's that simple.

FoKL Membership

Join to become eligible for annual awards and grants from FoKL. Friends groups can apply for grants up to $500, and individuals are recognized for their outstanding efforts. Your membership allows FoKL to share successful programs and ideas, encourage new groups to form, and to advocate for excellent library services. Volunteers make FoKL and Friends groups in local libraries a success. Your dues and contributions make a difference in Kansas Libraries!

Your support of the Friends of Kansas Libraries is an investment in libraries!
